New Series For 2015

Employee Assistance Program

Constructive Conflict

Ongoing change and uncertainty often promote conflict. Leaders who facilitate constructive outcomes from conflict have an advantage over leaders who ignore it. Constructive conflict surfaces opportunities, promotes solutions, and innovation.

Learning Objectives:
Identify various types of conflict and conflict management styles.

Connect conflict management styles with a variety of personality types.

Discuss the role of managers in addressing and resolving conflict within the workplace.

Who should attend?
These workshops are free to state employees and reservations are not required. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Before planning to attend, employees should ensure supervisor's approval.

Please provide two week notice for special accommodations.

At many facilities parking is not provided, please plan accordingly.

MAY 19, 2015 - 11 AM - 1 PM

Please allow extra time to arrive.
