Executive Summary

California's state government competes for its workforce with localgovernment agencies, as well as with the private sector and the federal government. This makes it critical that the state understands how its compensation compares with other employers.

Making simple wage comparisons, however, provides an incomplete picture. It is analogous to comparing the value of one home to another, without considering the size or location of the land. This is the reason that statutes require the California Department of Human Resources (CaIHR) to compare state employee salaries and benefits with public and private-sector employers.

To meet this challenge, CaIHR turned to the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics (Bureau), which produces two of the nation's most comprehensive wage and benefit surveys: the Occupational Employment Statistics (OES) survey and the National Compensation Survey (NCS).

By using the Bureau's benchmark data and established methodology for calculating employee costs, the state is able to compare its compensation practices with other employer groups in California, and provide valuable insight to current and prospective employees, policy makers, and the public.

Report Findings

The state's benefit package has a greater impact on total compensation compared with other employers. For example, when comparing median wages only, the state was below the market average for 17 of the 32 occupations examined in this report. However, when comparing total compensation, the number dropped to 8 of the 32 occupations. The table on the next two pages illustrate the details.

About This Report

The Bureau and the State of California's Employment Development Department (EDD) provided most of the labor market data in this report. Wage data from the Bureau and EDD were combined with benefit data from the Bureau and the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) to find the total compensation for local government, private sector, and federal government.

The State Controller's Office (SCO) provided the state employee wage and benefit data. CalHR staff combined and calculated the total compensation for each employer group. The table below summarizes the sources for wage and benefit data for each employer group, along with the page number in this report for additional details.

The 2018 California State Employee Total Compensation Report uses salary and benefit data to compare the state's compensation packages with three different employer groups:

- Local Government
- Private Sector
- Federal Government

Table 2: Major Data Sources for Report

| Employer Group | Wages | Benefits |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Local Government | OES Survey  (see pg. 111) | NCS  (see pg. 112) |
| Private Sector | OES Survey  (see pg. 111) | NCS  (see pg. 112) |
| Federal Government | OES Survey  (see pg. 111) | OPM  (see pg. 115) |
| State Government | SCO  (see pg. 107) | SCO |

In addition to making statewide comparisons, this report compares state employee total compensation in five geographic regions: Sacramento, San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, and all other counties.

About the Data

The intent of this report is to use the best available data to compare the state's total compensation costs with other employers in California.

This report does not define the appropriate level of compensation for state employees.

Instead, this report compares how state workers are compensated, as a group, with other workers in the same occupation by measuring the employer's costs for providing wages and common employee benefits.

This report also includes other information that can be used to evaluate the State of California's ability to recruit and retain employees in these occupations, such as turnover and vacancy data.

Authority and Background

According to Government Code section 19826(a) and (c), when the state establishes or adjusts salaries, "consideration shall be given to the prevailing rates for comparable service in other public employment and in private business," and CalHR must submit its findings to the parties meeting and conferring, and to the Legislature at least six months prior to the expiration of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU). The law requires that the state's report contains, "salaries of employees in comparable occupations in private industry and other governmental agencies." The Budget Act, Chapter 23, Statutes of 2019, Item 7501-001-0001, Provision 1 requires that in addition to salaries the report must include total compensation and geographic comparisons.

Mapping of State Jobs

In 2011, CalHR staff began mapping the state civil service classifications to 840 detailed occupations as defined by the federal government's Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) system. These detailed occupations are grouped into 23 major groups, 97 minor groups, and 461 broad occupations.

The mapping used in this report has been reviewed by Bureau economists and by CalHR's Personnel Management Division.

Thanks to the mapping, the state is able to:
> Systematically categorize and measure a wide range of employee benefits and pay incentives
$>$ Assess the competitiveness of its compensation packages with other employers in the labor market
> Compare its compensation packages among employees in different bargaining units
$>$ Educate current and prospective employees about its compensation packages
> Analyze the growth of its compensation costs with other employers
> Inform policy-makers and the public about compensation costs

Benchmark Selections

In previous years, the state published salary surveys using "benchmark classifications" to measure compensation for each bargaining unit. With the publication of the 2013 California State Employee Total Compensation Report, CalHR began comparing "benchmark occupations," because all Bureau wage and benefit data are reported by occupation.

This report includes benchmark occupations from the following nine bargaining units:

This report covers 455 rank-and-file and related excluded classifications associated with the nine bargaining units listed to the side. They are mapped to 32 detailed occupations categorized by SOC code. All classifications mapped to the same benchmark occupation are compared, as a group, to the wage and benefit data for the corresponding occupation. These comparisons include classifications from entrylevel through journey-level, and in many occupations, related supervisors.

Please refer to Appendix B for details on the specific classifications in each occupation.

Benchmark Selection Criteria

The benchmark occupations used in this report were selected using the following criteria:

State classifications have duties and qualifications consistent with the SOC definition.

State classifications represent a significant portion of the bargaining unit.

About 80,000 full-time state employees are represented in the 32 occupations included in this report. Chart 1 (on the next page) illustrates the percentage of employees associated with each bargaining unit in this report.

Bargaining Unit Comparisons

Although this report compares the total compensation costs for workers employed by different employer groups, comparisons can also be made among state workers in different bargaining units. The table below displays the annual scheduled hours of work, and the average annual hours worked for all full-time rank-and-file employees in each bargaining unit. The total compensation numbers represent the employer's costs for employee compensation, which is the costs for wages and benefits (supplemental pay, paid leave, insurance, retirement, and legally required benefits). Although overtime is included in supplemental pay, the table below displays overtime separately to illustrate its significance for each bargaining unit.

Please refer to Appendix C for Benefit Percentages used for each occupation. Please refer to the Glossary of Terms for a detailed definition of Annual Scheduled Hours and Annual Hours Worked. Wages, Other Benefits, and Overtime may not equal Total Compensation due to rounding.

Survey Findings: Total Compensation

On the next two pages the state's total compensation for each occupation is compared with the combined OES, NCS, and OPM data. The local government, private sector, and federal government columns display the percentage lead or lag compared to the state's total compensation for each occupation. A negative percentage indicates the state's total compensation is below (or lags) that employer group. A positive percentage indicates the state's compensation is above (or leads) that employer group. Dashes (-) are used where data are not available. The Market Average column is a weighted average for all three employer groups based upon total compensation and employment estimates for each employer. If the Market Average total compensation is positive or zero, the state is considered to be at or above the market. If the Market Average is negative, the state's compensation is considered to be below the market. Where there is data available from only one employer group for a comparison, that employer group represents the Market Average.

State Compensation At or Above Market

The table below displays where the state's total compensation leads the Market Average.

*State classifications previously mapped to the Software Developers, System Software and Computer Programmers occupations were eliminated by class consolidation. Most state IT classifications are now mapped to the Computer Systems Analyst occupation.

Occupations that have an N/A listed in the 2018 Market Average column were not included in the previous report.

Bargaining Units in Detail

Since 1982, rank-and-file state employees in California have been divided into different bargaining units based upon the type of work they perform, and are covered under collective bargaining rules outlined in the Ralph C. Dills Act. Each bargaining unit is represented by a union that negotiates employee wages, benefits, hours of work, and other terms and conditions of employment through an MOU. This report includes 34 benchmark occupations from nine of these bargaining units. The state negotiated a MOU with the union representing these bargaining units in 2019. Please refer to page 10 for a description of the benchmark selection criteria and Appendix B for a detailed list of state classifications in each occupation.

In addition to rank-and-file employees, there are thousands of employees associated with bargaining units, even though they are not represented by a union. Whenever an occupation includes these workers, related excluded classifications are included in our comparisons.

Bargaining Unit 1

Bargaining Unit 1 is made up of employees performing administrative, fiscal, analytical, and information technology functions. Nine occupations were selected for this report. The nine occupations consist of both rank-and-file and related excluded employees. See Appendix B for a detailed list of state classifications in each occupation.

Occupations Examined for Bargaining Unit 1

Geographic Comparisons

When comparing compensation, it is important to recognize that wages can vary between geographic regions. The federal government has a policy of paying its white-collar employees more to work in four regions of California (Sacramento, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and San Diego) than it does in the rest of the state. Please refer to Appendix D-1 for details.

The tables on the following pages compare the total compensation in the same regions, as well as "All Other Counties," using the 2014 Federal Locality Pay Area boundaries.

Where State Employees Work

Although the Sacramento region is home to the greatest concentration of all state workers, approximately 64 percent are employed elsewhere in California. The table below illustrates the percentage of full-time state employees associated with each bargaining unit (rank-and-file and related excluded) working in each region.

Data and Methodology

The following pages display a summary of data sources and methodologies used to complete this report.

Wages + Benefits = Total Compensation

When the value of employee benefits is added to wages, it has a significant impact on the monthly total compensation costs for state employees. Using the same methodology for combining labor market data, CalHR added the value of state employee benefits to the state wage to find the total compensation for state workers. For more details, please read Methodology for Combining Benefit Percentages and Wages.

TOTAL COMPENSATION

State Employee Wages

CalHR received wage data for state employees from the State Controller's Office. This report compares the monthly median wage for full-time workers as of March 2018. (The median is the number in the middle of a group. For example, if there are five wages listed in descending order, then the third salary would be the median wage.) To find the state median wage, all salaries paid to state workers, rank-and-file and related excluded, associated with the same bargaining unit and mapped to the same occupation were collected. The average "wage-related" pay differentials paid to state workers in the occupation were then added to the base salary for each state employee to calculate the wage per employee.

Please refer to Appendix A for additional details on state employee and labor market wages.

Calculating State Employee Benefit Percentages

To calculate the percentage of benefits to wages for state workers, CalHR closely followed the methodology used for the NCS.

The benefits listed below are included in the NCS, which measures the employer's average costs for wages and benefits. The state's costs were collected from data provided by SCO for each bargaining unit separately, and then divided by the count of full-time employees to find an average annual benefit cost per employee. The average annual benefit cost was then divided by the average annual wage for that bargaining unit to find a "benefit percentage."

Wages: The average base pay for each bargaining unit was collected. An average of the qualifying pay differentials was calculated, and then added to the average base pay to compute the average wage for each bargaining unit.

Benefits

Supplemental Pay: This includes the employer's costs for overtime pay, shift differentials (for example, holiday shifts, weekend shifts, non-regular shift pay differentials), and the remainder of premium pays that are not included in the wage.

This also includes the following Non-Production Bonuses:
> Merit Award Program (Employee Suggestion Award, Employee Recognition Award, and 25-Year Service Award)
$>$ Informal time off (ITO)
$>$ Flex Elect (cash in-lieu of benefits)
$>$ Recruitment and Retention bonuses
$>$ Longevity bonuses

Paid Leave: To find the employer's cost for paid leave, all vacation/annual leave, holidays, and professional development days accrued are totaled. All sick leave used is then added to the total. This number is then multiplied by an hourly rate for paid leave.

Insurance: This includes the employer contribution for life insurance, ${ }^{1}$ health insurance or consolidated benefits (CoBen), dental insurance, vision insurance, short-term disability insurance, long-term disability insurance, and administrative fees paid by the state for each plan.

Retirement and Savings: This includes the employer contribution towards retirement plans administered by the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CaIPERS).

Legally Required Benefits: This includes the employer costs for Social Security, Medicare, state and federal unemployment insurance, and workers' compensation.

Benefit Percentages for Bargaining Units

The benefit percentages below represent the state's average cost for employee benefits, as defined by the Bureau, compared to average employee wages. Please refer to Appendix C for specific benefit percentages used for each occupation.

About the Occupational Employment Statistics Survey

According to the Bureau, the OES survey is the only comprehensive source of regularly produced occupational employment and wage rate information for the U.S. economy. The survey is published annually, covering full-time wage and salary workers in nonfarm industries. It does not include wages for the self-employed.

The OES program is a cooperative effort between the Bureau and State Workforce Agencies (SWA). In California, the Employment Development Department (EDD) is the SWA responsible for collecting local-government and private-sector wages. The Bureau collects federal employee wage data.

All wage data in the survey is categorized into occupations using the federal SOC system. Each occupation represents a wide range of wages, including entry through journey-level workers, and often firstlevel supervisors.

The survey is distributed to approximately 97,000 local-government and private-sector employers in California over a rolling three-year period. The Bureau updates any aged survey data using the ECI before combining it with current data.

The OES data in this report reflects wages for full-time workers in California as of March 2018. Private-sector wages were filtered for large employers (500 or more employees) for all statewide and regional comparisons.

About the National Compensation Survey

According to the Bureau, the NCS provides comprehensive measures of employee compensation, compensation cost trends, as well as the degree to which workers have access to - and participate in -employer-provided benefit plans. Bureau field economists collect and review the survey data from a national, statistically representative sample of private-sector businesses, and state and local-government agencies. The survey does not include federal government, agricultural, household workers, and workers who are self-employed.

The 2018 California State Employee Total Compensation Report uses data from the Employer Costs for Employee Compensation (ECEC), which reports the average total compensation on an hourly basis for private-sector and local-government workers.

The NCS data are used in the following Bureau reports:
> Employment Cost Index (ECI)
> Employee Benefit Incidence and Provisions
> Employer Costs for Employee Compensation (ECEC)

Please refer to the Glossary of Terms for detailed definitions.

Employer Costs for Employee Compensation (ECEC)

The ECEC reports the following employer-paid benefit costs:
$>$ Supplemental pay $>$ Retirement savings
$>$ Paid leave $>$ Legally required benefits
> Insurance
The Bureau provided CalHR with unpublished estimates of annual hours worked, annual scheduled hours, and hourly wage and benefit costs for private-sector and local-government workers separately. CalHR annualized the hourly data to create "benefit percentages" for each employer group and each occupation. ${ }^{2}$ The table below summarizes how these percentages were created.

Table 14: Calculating the Benefit Percentage from the NCS

| NCS Wage for Major  Occupational Group | NCS Total Benefits for  Major Occupational  Group | Benefit  Formula | Benefit \% |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| $$ 80,000 /$ Year | $$ 40,000 /$ Year | $($ 40,000 / $ 80,000)=50 \%$ | $50 \%$ |

[^2]
National Compensation Survey Data

The Bureau provided CalHR with a detailed breakout of total compensation costs from the NCS for the Pacific Region. ${ }^{3}$ The map below illustrates the five states in the Pacific Region.

[^3]
Federal Employee Benefit Data

To calculate a benefit percentage for federal workers, CalHR obtained wage and benefit costs for federal workers employed in each occupation from the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM).

Methodology for Combining Benefit Percentages and Wages

The Bureau and EDD have instructed CalHR how their data is collected and calculated, enabling CaIHR to combine the OES and NCS surveys for benchmarking purposes.

To find the total compensation for a detailed occupation, the benefit percentage from the NCS (for local government and private sector) and from the OPM (for federal government) was combined with the wage data from the corresponding employer group in the OES survey.

Here's how this works: Multiply the OES annual wage by the benefit percentage to find the dollar value for employee benefits, and then add this amount to the annual wage from the OES survey. This produces the annual total compensation estimate for workers in the occupation.

Table 15: Calculating the Value of Employee Benefits

| OES Annual Wage for  Detailed Occupational  Group | Benefit \% | Multiply Annual  Wage by Benefit  Percentage | Add OES Annual  Wage and Value of  Benefits | Total Compensation  for Occupation |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| $$ 80,000 /$ Year | $50 \%$ | $($ 80,000 \times 50 \%)=$ 40,000$ | $$ 80,000+$ 40,000$ | $$ 120,000 /$ Year |

State Benefits Not Included in Total Compensation

The state offers its employees some benefits which were not included in the calculation of state employee total compensation costs in this report. This section describes these benefits.

Bereavement Leave

State employees may receive up to three days of leave following the death of a family member or person in the employee's household.

Employee Assistance Program (EAP)

All active state employees and their dependents are eligible to participate in the EAP. This program is provided by the State of California as part of the state's commitment to promoting employee health and wellness. It is offered at no charge to the employee and provides a valuable resource for support and information during difficult times, as well as consultation on day-to-day concerns. EAP includes an assessment, short-term counseling, and referral service designed to provide members with assistance in managing everyday concerns. EAP can assist with marriage, family, and relationship issues; emotional, personal and stress concerns; drug and alcohol abuse; healthy lifestyles; and work-life balance. Customer service representatives are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to confidentially discuss concerns and ensure participants receive the assistance they need.

Flexible Schedules

The state offers flexible schedules to many of its workers, often in the form of an Alternate Work Week Schedule. This schedule allows employees and management to mutually agree upon a varied distribution of their normal work hours. It does not change the number of hours worked, but simply allows each individual the flexibility to rearrange their work schedule to better meet their personal needs while also considering the needs of the office.

Jury Duty Leave

State employees called for jury duty are granted leave time during their service. Employees are not entitled to juror pay but are permitted to keep mileage payments.

License and Professional Association Membership

Depending upon the bargaining unit agreement, the state may pay for employees to retain professional licenses or reimburse employees for membership in job-related professional associations. For example, the state reimburses full-time physicians and nurses for license renewal fees if required to maintain a license as a condition of state employment. See related Memoranda of Understandings for more information.

Long Term Care

CaIPERS Long-term care (LTC) is an optional, employee-paid benefit available to all active members, retirees, and their eligible family members. LTC refers to the services available to people that have difficulty managing the activities of daily living due to illness, injury, disability, cognitive disorder, or aging. This is an employee-paid program, so there is no cost to the state for this benefit.

Paid Leave for Promotional Exams/Promotional Interviews State employees may be granted leave time to participate in civil service examinations and attend interviews. (Gov. Code §19991)

Reimbursement Accounts

The FlexElect Reimbursement Account offers employees a voluntary pre-tax reimbursement account for out-of-pocket medical and dependent care expenses.

Retiree Health Insurance (Other Post-Employment Benefits)

The Bureau of Labor Statistics does not include retiree health insurance in the calculation of benefits for the National Compensation Survey. Following this methodology, the state did not include its contribution to retiree health in its benefit calculations.

State Defined Contribution Program: Savings Plus

Through Savings Plus, most state employees may establish and manage 401(k) and 457(b) plans. In 2018, employees were allowed to contribute up to $$ 18,500$ in each plan ( $$ 37,000$ combined), if under the age of 50 ; and up to $$ 24,500$ in each plan ( $$ 49,000$ combined) if 50 or older. Savings Plus allows employees to save for their retirement on both a pre-tax basis and after-tax basis with the designated Roth feature.

Because the state does not contribute to these accounts, it does not affect state employee total compensation costs. However, the program still provides employees with a valuable benefit by offering an additional opportunity to save for retirement through a welldiversified mix of investment options with low investment fees and low administrative costs to the participant.

Statewide Employee Wellness Program

The statewide Employee Wellness Program provides health promotion information, resources, and direction to State agencies to help them develop programs that promote healthy lifestyles for their employees. All active state employees are encouraged to participate in Healthier U Connections - an innovative, online wellness service that allows state active employees to continually track health behaviors and access wellness resources, such as healthy recipes, exercise videos, ask a physician, and much more.

Supplemental Life Insurance

Excluded employees enrolled in the State-paid group term life insurance plan can purchase additional insurance coverage from MetLife. Under the voluntary supplemental life insurance plan, these employees may elect additional coverage in increments of $$ 10,000$ up to the lesser of $$ 750,000$ or eight times an employee's basic annual earnings.

Teleworking

In some offices, the state encourages the use of teleworking (working from home) as a management work option. Appropriately planned and managed, telework can benefit managers, employees, and customers of the State of California.

Time-Off to Maintain Licensure

For state employees that must maintain professional licensure as a condition of employment, the state allows these employees time off for educational leave without loss of compensation. See related Memoranda of Understandings for more information.

Training and Professional Development

The Statewide Training Center provides development opportunities for state employees through civil-service led academies and vendor hosted solutions. The CalHR competency-based academy programs include consultation on and delivery of leadership development, process improvement, and human resource professional training.

Transportation Benefits

There are three transportation-related benefits the state offers to employees. The first is pre-tax parking, which allows employees to have their taxable income reduced by a specific dollar amount for work-related parking fees. The second benefit is the Transit and Vanpool Incentive Program, where employees receive a transit or vanpool subsidy of 75 percent, up to a maximum of $$ 65$ per month. The vanpool coordinator/driver for each vanpool receives a reimbursement amount of $$ 100$ per month. The third benefit is the Bicycle Commuter Program. Active state employees who bike to work at least $50 \%$ of the days they are scheduled to work in a calendar month are eligible to receive a taxable $$ 20$ benefit per month.

Uniform/Equipment Allowance

Depending upon the bargaining unit, some state employees receive an allowance or reimbursement for uniforms and/or equipment. See related Memoranda of Understandings for more information.

Glossary of Terms

These definitions are used for the purposes of this report. Definitions originated from the Bureau, the EDD, or CalHR.

| Annual Hours | The Bureau calculates Annual Hours Worked as follows: add annual  scheduled hours plus any overtime hours worked during the year, then  subtract all vacation, holiday and personal leave hours accrued as well as  sick leave hours used during the year. |
| :--- | :--- |
| Annual Leave | Annual Leave is a consolidated leave plan. Consolidated leave plans provide  a single amount of time off for workers to use for a number of purposes,  such as vacation, illness, and personal business. Upon separation or  retirement, state employees are compensated for any unused hours. |
| Annual Scheduled | This is the total number of hours in a year that workers are scheduled to  work. Most full-time workers are scheduled to work 40 hours a week, 52  weeks a year, which equates to 2,080 annual scheduled hours. |
| Bargaining Units | A group of employees working in similar classifications or occupations  represented by a union for bargaining purposes. |
| Base Salary | Wages paid for work performed during a unit of time, such as monthly.  Base salary does not include overtime or incentive pay. |
| Bureau | The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics is part of the Department of Labor and is  the principal fact-finding agency for the federal government in the broad  field of labor economics and statistics. |
| Collective Bargaining Identifier (CB/ID) refers to a three-digit code that is |  |
| CB/ID | assigned to each job classification. CB/ID designates if a classification is  rank-and-file (R), managerial (M), supervisory (S), confidential (C),  exempt/excluded (E), or unassigned (U); as well as the collective bargaining  unit the classification is aligned to, if applicable. For example, CB/IDs for |
| Bargaining Unit 1 and its related excluded employees look like this: R01, |  |
| M01, s01, and C01. |  |$\quad$| A defined benefit retirement plan provides employees with guaranteed |

| retirement benefits that are based on a benefit formula. A participant's |
| retirement age, length of service, and pre-retirement earnings may affect |
| the benefit received. |

| Defined  Contribution  Retirement Plan | A defined contribution retirement plan specifies the level of employer and employee contributions (retirement savings) and places those contributions into individual employee accounts. Retirement benefits are based on the level of contributions, plus earnings. |
| Disability Insurance | Disability insurance pays part of a worker's wages if he or she has to stop working because of a non-work-related illness or injury. |
| Employee Benefit  Incidence and  Provisions | The Bureau produces this report, which displays the percentage of workers with access to and participation in employer provided benefit plans (such as retirement, health care, life insurance, short-term and long-term disability insurance, and paid leave benefits). |
| ECEC | The Bureau produces the Employer Costs for Employee Compensation (ECEC) report, which shows employer costs per hour worked for wages and individual benefits. Cost data are presented in both dollar amounts and as percentages of compensation. |
| ECI | The Bureau produces the Employment Cost Index (ECI), which is a measure of the change in the cost of labor. The series measures changes in compensation costs (wages and salaries and costs for employee benefits). |
| EDD | The Employment Development Department (EDD) administers the state's payroll tax program and offers a variety of services to Californians under the Job Service, Unemployment Insurance (UI), State Disability Insurance (SDI), Workforce Investment, and Labor Market Information programs. |
| Employee  Merit  Awards | There are four merit awards given to qualifying state employees in California. 1) Employee Suggestion Program (ESP) - Employees formally submit their ideas to reduce or eliminate state expenditures or improve the safety or the operation of the state. 2) Medal of Valor (MOV) - The highest honor California bestows upon its public servants. 3) Superior Accomplishment Award (SAA) - Departments may award employees for job performance resulting in exceptional contribution to improving state government. 4) The 25 Year/Retirement Service Award - Employees with 25 years of state service and retiring employees with 25 years or more of state service may receive a memento. |

| Flex Elect | The State of California's Flex Elect program offers two types of employee  benefits: pre-tax reimbursement accounts for out-of-pocket medical and  dependent care expenses, and cash in lieu of state-sponsored health and/or  dental benefits for employees who have other qualifying group health  coverage or other dental coverage. |
| Health Insurance  Plan | Insurance plans that include coverage for one or more of the following:  medical care, dental care, and vision care. |
| Holiday Bonus | Payment to employees as a holiday gift. For State of California employees,  in 2018, the Governor granted employees four hours of paid Informal Time  Off (ITO) leave to use on either Christmas Eve or New Year's Eve. ITO was  calculated as a Holiday Bonus. |
| Holiday Leave | Holidays are days off from work on days of special religious, cultural, social,  or patriotic significance on which work and business ordinarily cease. |
| Holiday Premium | Payment for working a designated holiday; usually an add-on to a base rate. |
| Pay | The implicit rate is an inherent subsidy of retiree healthcare costs by active  employee healthcare costs when healthcare premiums paid by retirees and  actives are the same. |
| Implicit Subsidy |  |
| Involuntary | Involuntary separations include AWOL, death, dismissal, failure to meet  employee conditions, termination with fault, illegal appointment, and  resignation with fault. |
| Legally Required Insurance | Legally required benefits include the employer's costs for Social Security,  Medicare, Federal, and State unemployment insurance, and workers'  compensation. Most peace officers, firefighters, and safety employees do  not participate in Social Security. |
| Benefits | A contract that pays the beneficiary a set sum of money upon the death of  the policyholder. These plans pay benefits usually in the form of a lump  sum, but they may also be distributed as an annuity. |
| Payment to an employee based on seniority or length of service with an  employer. |  |

Glossary of Terms Continued

| Long-Term | Provides a monthly benefit to employees who, due to a non-work-related  injury or illness, are unable to perform the duties of their normal  occupation or any other, for periods of time extending beyond their short-  term disability or sickness and accident insurance. |
| :--- | :--- |
| Market Average | To calculate the "Market Average," CalHR multiplied the Bureau's  estimated number of workers in an occupation for an employer group by its  total compensation. Totals for the three employer groups were then  summed, then divided by the total number of employees for all three  groups to find the Market Average. |
| Mean | The mean is the arithmetic average of a group of numbers. |
| Median | The median is the midpoint of a group of numbers after sorting in  ascending or descending order. |
| The National Compensation Survey is a detailed compensation survey |  |
| conducted by the Bureau. The NCS produces three separate reports: the |  |
| Employment Cost Index (ECI), the Employee Benefit Incidence and |  |

| OPM | The U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is the federal government's chief human resources agency and personnel policy manager, directing human resources policy; administering retirement, healthcare, and insurance programs; and providing oversight of merit-based and inclusive hiring into the federal government's civil service. |
| :---: | :---: |
| Overtime Pay | Payment over and above the employee's regular pay for working in excess of a specified number of hours per day or per week. |
| Paid Leave | Leave from work (or pay in lieu of time off) provided on an annual basis and normally taken in blocks of days or weeks by an employee. Vacation, sick, and holiday paid leave are the most common. |
| Personal Leave | Personal leave is a general-purpose leave benefit, used for reasons important to the individual employee, but not otherwise provided by other forms of leave. Some employers place restrictions on the purposes for which personal leave may be used. State employees receive Professional Development Days (PDD) which fall into this category. |
| Private Sector | The private sector is comprised of for-profit and not-for-profit businesses and organizations. By contrast, the public sector is made up of government employers. |
| Retirement Plans | Includes defined benefit pension plans and defined contribution retirement plans. |
| Related Excluded | Employees in classifications that do not have collective bargaining rights under the Ralph C. Dills Act, but whose job duties are related to rank-andfile employees in a bargaining unit. These employees are generally designated managerial, confidential, exempt, or supervisory. |
| Retirement Rate | The retirement rate is calculated by dividing the count of all service and disability retirements for the year by the annual average number of employees. |
| Shift Differential | Payment over and above an employee's regular pay for working a nonstandard shift, typically evenings, nights, and weekends. |
| Sick Leave | Employer paid time off offered to employees to compensate for time away from work while sick or injured. |
| Short-Term Disability | Provides short-term (typically 26 weeks) income protection to employees who are unable to work due to a non-work-related accident or illness. |

|  | Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) system is a list of defined  occupations maintained by the federal government's Office of Management  and Budget. It has been adopted by federal statistical agencies to classify  workers into occupational categories for the purpose of collecting,  calculating, or disseminating data. The 2010 SOC system contains 840  detailed occupations. |
| :--- | :--- |
| State Classification | A defined state job. The State of California maintains definitions and  salaries for approximately 2,800 civil service classifications. |
| Supplemental Pay | Supplemental pay includes overtime and premium pay for work in addition  to the regular work schedule (such as weekends and holidays), shift  differentials, and nonproduction bonuses (such as referral bonuses and  lump-sum payments provided in lieu of wage increases). |
| Turnover Rate | The turnover rate is calculated by dividing the count of all voluntary and  involuntary separations, and retirements for the year by the annual average  number of employees. |
| Unemployment | A joint federal-state program, established in 1935 under the Social Security  Act, under which state administered funds obtained through payroll taxes  provide payments to eligible unemployed persons. |
| Insurance | The vacancy rate is calculated by dividing an average of full-time equivalent  vacant positions by the average of all established full-time equivalent  positions. It does not include employees hired into blanket positions.  (Blanket positions are intended to be used for temporary, seasonal, or  intermittent workload.) |
| Vacalue of Paid | Time-off from work normally taken in days or weeks that provide  employees with a rest or break from work. The amount of time-off may  vary based on an employee's length-of-service with the employer or it may  be a fixed number of days or weeks. |
| Vacation, annual leave, holiday, and other employer paid leave hours  accrued (and assumed used) are added to sick leave hours used during the  year. This number is multiplied by an hourly rate for paid leave to find the  annual cost to the employer. |  |
| The voluntary separation rate is calculated by dividing the count of all |  |
| Separation Rate | voluntary separations (not including retirements) for the year by the annual  average number of employees. |

Geographic Differences: Federal Locality Pay

The federal government maintains a general salary schedule for approximately 1.5 million white-collar workers. Within this system there are 46 separate "locality pay areas" and a "Rest of the United States" pay schedule. There are four locality pay areas in California. The table below illustrates that federal workers in three of the regions receive higher pay than the Sacramento region. However, workers in all four regions receive higher pay than in the "Rest of the United States," which includes California counties not included in these regions.

Table 1: Comparing Federal Locality Pay in Four Regions in California

| Metro Area | Percent Higher  Than Sacramento | Percent Higher Than the  Rest of the U.S. |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Greater Los Angeles Area | $4.7 \%$ | $13.7 \%$ |
| San Francisco Bay Area | $11.8 \%$ | $21.3 \%$ |
| San Diego County | $2.6 \%$ | $11.4 \%$ |
| Sacramento Area | - | $8.6 \%$ |

Size of Employer Groups in Labor Market

This report compares the total compensation for state workers with federal and local government workers, as well as workers at large private sector firms (employing 500 or more employees). EDD also produces a Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages, which estimates the number of workers for these employer groups. ${ }^{2}$ The table below compares the number of workers in each group with the 17 million Californians working in nonfarm jobs in 2018. ${ }^{3}$

Table 2: Number of Workers by Employer Group in California

| Employer | Number of Workers | Percent of Nonfarm  Workers |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Private Sector $(500+\text { workers })^{4}$ | $2,379,490$ | $13.9 \%$ |
| Local Government | $1,806,400$ | $10.5 \%$ |
| State Government ${ }^{5}$ | 230,129 | $1.3 \%$ |
| Federal Government ${ }^{6}$ | 185,100 | $1.1 \%$ |

Table 3: Number of Local Government Workers in More Detail

Estimated OPEB Costs by Employer Group

Retiree health insurance coverage is a valuable benefit offered to some employees, but it is not included in the NCS. This benefit is often called Other Post-Employment Benefits (OPEB). Because the NCS does not collect or report employer costs for retiree health, it could not be included in the total compensation comparison.

However, using different sources of data, the Department produced an estimated cost for government employer groups offering this benefit in California, which is displayed in the table below. The local government and state government estimated costs are based upon data submitted to California Employer's Retiree Benefit Trust Fund (CERBT) managed by CaIPERS. ${ }^{9}$ There are 564 local government agencies participating in the CERBT program. The federal government's estimated cost was provided by the Office of Personnel Management. ${ }^{10}$

Table 5: Estimated Average Annual OPEB Costs Per Retiree by Government Employer Group in California

| Employer | Avg. Annual Employer Cost  Per Retiree Receiving OPEB |
| :---: | :---: |
| Local Government | $$ 7,133$ |
| Federal Government* | $$ 8,410$ |

*Federal government OPEB data was not available for 2018, so 2017 data was used.

[^1]:    ${ }^{1}$ The state pays for a Group Term Life Insurance policy for Managers, Supervisors and Excluded employees. The cost for these employees was included in the state's total compensation whenever these employees were part of an occupation. In addition to these policies, all state employees enrolled in a CalPERS retirement plan are automatically covered in a Group Term Life Insurance plan. However, those policies are funded through retirement contributions, so were not included in the state's total compensation costs.

[^2]:    ${ }^{2}$ The Bureau provided estimates for wages, benefits, annual scheduled hours, and annual hours worked for most major occupational groups for the private sector. However, local government sample data was insufficient to produce estimates for some major occupational groups. Where this was the case, CalHR used the local government high level or "All Worker" benefit percentage.
