

Identifying Inefficiencies

Spaghetti Mapping is a technique used to help identify inefficiencies in a workspace. It is used to plot the path taken by a product as it travels through the steps of a value stream.

What are the benefits and challenges of spaghetti mapping?

What wastes could be identified?

How could you use this in your area?