CRITERIA

Sonoma Developmental Center (SDC)

1. Effective July 1, 2016, newly hired and current SDC employees are eligible to accrue a retention incentive stipend.
2. For each full quarter worked during the fiscal year 2016/2017, employees will accrue two hundred and fifty dollars ($250).
3. Effective July 1, 2017, each employee will accrue five hundred dollars ($500) per full quarter worked.
4. Employees shall not accrue more than six thousand dollars ($6,000) for the period of July 1, 2016 through December 31, 2018 or closure (including warm-shut down), whichever comes last.
5. Employees are eligible to be paid the accrued retention incentive stipend upon separation from DDS, if that separation occurs after December 31, 2017, or when the current June 29, 2016 census of three hundred and forty-eight (348) residents (total population) at SDC decreases by 50%, whichever occurs first. Separation includes retirement, layoff, death, transfer to another state department or voluntary separation. If an employee transfers to another developmental center which is accruing a retention incentive stipend the employee will continue to accrue the retention incentive stipend, according to that center's agreement. If an employee transfers to another developmental center or a community facility that is not receiving the retention incentive stipend, the employee will be paid the accrued retention incentive stipend accrued up to the date of transfer.
6. Employees forfeit the accrued retention incentive stipend if they separate from DDS before December 31, 2017, or before if the current June 29, 2016 census of residents (total population) at SDC decreases by 50%, whichever occurs first.
7. For the purpose of the retention incentive stipend, a full quarter is January through March, April through June, July through September and October through December of each calendar year in which an employee has physically worked a minimum of eleven (11) work days or eighty-eight (88) hours during each month of the full quarter. Employees on approved Industrial Disability

Leave (IDL) or Enhanced Industrial Disability Leave (EIDL) starting on or after July 1, 2016 will be considered as working on those days approved for IDL and EIDL.

8. Employees working less than full time shall be eligible to accrue the retention stipend according to their time base.
9. Employees who are terminated by the department or who are AWOL separated forfeit any and all accrued stipend.
10. Employees who receive an adverse action during the accrual period forfeit the accrued stipend during the effective dates of the adverse action.
11. Under no circumstances will an employee receive duplicate payment for a full quarter in which he/she has already received payment. If an employee separates from SDC and is paid for the accrued retention incentive stipend and the employee subsequently returns to SDC or any other developmental center receiving a retention incentive stipend, the employee may begin accruing the retention incentive stipend effective as of the return date.

Fairview Developmental Center (FDC)

1. Effective July 1, 2016, newly hired and current FDC employees are eligible to accrue a retention incentive stipend.
2. For each full quarter worked during the fiscal year 2016/2017, employees will accrue two hundred and fifty dollars ($250).
3. Effective July 1, 2017, each employee will accrue five hundred dollars ($500) per full quarter worked.
4. Employees shall not accrue more than six thousand dollars ($6,000) for the period of July 1, 2016 through December 31, 2021 or closure (including warm-shut down), whichever comes last.
5. Employees are eligible to be paid the accrued retention incentive stipend upon separation from DDS, if that separation occurs after December 31, 2017, or when the current June 29, 2016 census of two hundred and twenty-two (222) residents (total population) at FDC decreases by 50%, whichever occurs first. Separation includes retirement, layoff, death, transfer to another state department or voluntary separation. If an employee transfers to another developmental center which is accruing a retention incentive stipend the employee will continue to accrue the retention incentive stipend, according to that center's agreement. If an employee transfers to another developmental center or a community facility that is not receiving the retention incentive stipend, the employee will be paid the accrued retention incentive stipend accrued up to the date of transfer.
6. Employees forfeit the accrued retention incentive stipend if they separate from DDS before December 31, 2017, or before if the current June 29, 2016 census of residents (total population) at FDC decreases by 50%, whichever occurs first.
7. For the purpose of the retention incentive stipend, a full quarter is January through March, April through June, July through September and October through December of each calendar year in which an employee has physically worked a minimum of eleven (11) work days or eighty-eight (88) hours during each month of the full quarter. Employees on approved Industrial Disability Leave (IDL) or Enhanced Industrial Disability Leave (EIDL) starting on or after July 1, 2016 will be considered as working on those days approved for IDL and EIDL.
