RATE

A. One day's salary per Administrator-of-the-Day (AOD) on-call shift of seven days.

B. One day's salary per incident requiring the Special Assistant Inspector General, Senior Assistant Inspector General, or Chief Assistant Inspector General to rollout.

The daily rate of pay shall be calculated by dividing the employee's base pay by 21.667 (average work days per month).

CRITERIA

On-Call Shifts:

- Employees as designated above shall receive the equivalent of one day's salary per each AOD on-call assignment of seven days.
- For classes effective 10/01/22, the AOD must meet the following criteria:
 - California Health and Human Services Agency's Office of Law Enforcement Support:

- Attorneys who are responsible and available, outside of normal business hours, for immediate response due to incidents at Department of State Hospitals or Department of Developmental Services per each AOD on-call assignment of seven consecutive days.
 - Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, Officer Involved Shooting Enforcement:
 - Attorneys who are responsible and available, outside of normal business hours, for immediate response due to investigations with officer-involved shootings per each AOD on-call assignment of seven consecutive days.
 - On-call shift must be scheduled in advance
 - On-call shift must require employee to be ready, willing, and able to respond within one hour of request
 - AOD assignment must be outside Department's normal business hours
- Office of Inspector General Employees:
- Employees who serve an AOD on-call shift of less than seven days shall receive pro-rata pay.
 - Pro-rata pay will be calculated by dividing the employee's monthly base salary by 21.667 to get the daily base salary, then divide the daily base salary by seven days to get the pro-rata rate, then multiply pro-rata rate by the number of days worked on the AOD on-call shift.
- Rollout Incident:
- Special Assistant Inspector General, Senior Assistant Inspector General, and Chief Assistant Inspector General employees as designated above shall receive the equivalent of one day's salary per incident that requires them to rollout while not serving a scheduled AOD on-call shift.
- Restrictions:
- Combined compensation for rate A and rate B shall not exceed the equivalent of thirteen days of salary per calendar year.
