CRITERIA

Effective on the first day the department activated their COVID testing program, but no earlier than July 1, 2021, all excluded classifications who meet the criteria below are eligible for the Testing Observer Pay Differential. The differential allows departments to provide compensation to excluded employees who have completed vendor-required training to become a Testing Administrator* and who also perform any of the following COVID testing duties:

- Check in test participants
- Supervise nasal swab sample collection
- Dispose of cards and test materials
- Package test samples for shipping
- Perform and read tests

*Employees must complete the required Color's antigen testing training (or California Department of Public Health approved alternative training) prior to receiving the Pay Differential.

Note: This Pay Differential expires effective May 1, 2023. Employees are only eligible to receive this differential for eligible activities performed between July 1, 2021 and May 1, 2023.
