RATE
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2% after passing probation in an eligible classification. 2. 3% after completion of working in the eligible classification for twelve (12) months (for a total of 5%). 3. 1.50% after completion of working in the eligible classification for twenty-four (24) months (for a total of 6.50%). The percentage rate is based upon the employee's base pay. This pay differential is to be paid on a monthly basis.

CRITERIA
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. For the purposes of counting qualifying time towards eligibility for payment of the pay differential, approved leaves of absence such as maternity/paternity leave, medical leave, FMLA or military leave shall not be considered a break in service or considered to break the required months in the classification. 2. If an employee transfers from a classification listed above to another classification listed above, the qualifying time shall be cumulative. 3. If an employee voluntarily terminates, transfers or is discharged prior to completing one or all the requirements, there will be no pro-rata payment. 4. Part-time permanent employees shall receive the pay differential on a pro-rata basis. 5. Permanent intermittent employees shall receive the pay differential on a pro-rata basis based on the hours worked in the pay period. 6. Employees shall continue to receive this pay differential as long as they remain in an eligible classification. NOTE: If an employee's CBID differs from the classification CBID, the employee is eligible for the pay differential.
