CRITERIA
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employees in the Emergency Notification Controller (ENC) classification assigned to the CalOES California State Warning Center (CSWC) shall receive this differential following the completion of 12, 24, and 48 consecutive qualifying pay periods based on the following staged schedule: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Effective October 1, 2023, employees with 12 or more consecutive qualifying pay periods will receive a 2% pay differential. Effective January 1, 2024, employees with 24 or more consecutive qualifying pay periods will receive an additional 3% pay differential, for a total of 5%. Effective July 1, 2024, employees with 48 or more consecutive qualifying pay periods will receive an additional 5% pay differential, for a total of 10%. • ENC employees assigned to the CSWC who do not meet the above schedule, are eligible for the 2%, 3%, and 5% increase in differentials upon completion of the requisite consecutive qualifying pay periods. • Eligible employees hired prior to October 1, 2023 shall receive the amount identified above for 12 or more consecutive qualifying pay periods as all time counts towards the differential. • For the purposes of counting qualifying time towards eligibility for this differential, if the employee is approved for unpaid leaves of absence, the employee will not accrue time toward the 12 consecutive qualifying pay periods, but the employee shall not be required to start the calculation of the 12 qualifying pay periods all over. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - For example, if an employee has worked 4 qualifying pay periods, and then takes a 6 month unpaid parental leave, the employee will have only 8 additional qualifying pay periods to complete before receiving the differential for having 12 or more consecutive qualifying pay periods.
