Upon movement to Range B from Range 1 or Range A, employees shall receive the minimum salary rate. Upon satisfactory progress in completing requirements of the apprenticeship program established for the classification, employees are eligible to receive one-step (5%) apprenticeship increases effective the first day of the monthly pay period following every six (6) qualifying pay periods until the maximum of the range is reached.

NOTE: To document the one-step (5%) apprenticeship increase, the State Controller's Office (SCO) shall treat the increase as a Merit Salary Adjustment (MSA) in order to automate the increase. This increase is subject to the MSA process.

Range J. Effective July 1, 2004, this apprenticeship range shall apply to incumbents who meet criteria for payment at Range B under Alternate Range Criteria 168 and who are required to work a minimum of 41 hours in a 7 consecutive day work period as established by the departments under the 7k provisions of the FLSA pursuant to Section 11.11 of the BU 6 MOU. This alternate range represents full compensation for all hours worked up to 41 hours in a 7 consecutive day work period.

- Effective October 1, 1998 through June 30, 2004, incumbents were subject to 168 hours in a 28 consecutive day work period.
- Effective July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2015, incumbents were subject to 164 hours in a 28 consecutive day work period.

Upon movement to Range J from Range B, employees shall receive a one-step (5%) increase and shall retain their salary adjustment anniversary date.

Upon movement to Range J from Range 1 or Range A, employees shall receive the minimum salary rate and shall receive a new salary adjustment anniversary date.

Upon satisfactory progress in completing requirements of the apprenticeship program established for the classification, employees are eligible to receive one-step (5%) apprenticeship increases effective the first day of the monthly pay period following every six (6) qualifying pay periods until the maximum of the range is reached. Qualifying pay periods include time served in Range B, if applicable.

NOTE: To document the one-step (5%) apprenticeship increase, the SCO shall treat the increase as an MSA in order to automate the increase. This increase is subject to the MSA process.

When employees are no longer eligible for payment under the provisions of Range J, they shall be placed in Range B with one-step (5%) decreased from their Range J salary rate and shall retain their salary adjustment anniversary date.

Range C. This journeyman range shall apply to employees who have satisfactorily completed the apprenticeship program (24 month and hourly requirement, unless qualifying credits are awarded by the apprenticeship committee) for the employees' classification and who do not meet the criteria for payment in Range K.

Note: Consistent with Section 8.03, as soon as can be accomplished, CPOST Commissioners can agree to move an apprentice off apprenticeship and his/her pay will, correspondingly, be increased to the appropriate salary range.

Upon movement to Range C from Range B or Range J, employees shall receive the minimum salary rate or a one-step (5%) increase, whichever is higher, and shall receive a new MSA anniversary date. Thereafter, every twelve (12) qualifying pay periods after movement to Range C, employees shall receive MSAs in accordance with the BU 6 MOU until the maximum of the range is reached.

Range K. Effective July 1, 2004, this journeyman range shall apply to incumbents who meet criteria for payment at Range C under Alternate Range Criteria 168 and who are required to work a minimum of 41 hours in a 7 consecutive day work period as established by the departments under the 7k provisions of the FLSA pursuant to Section 11.11 of the BU 6 MOU. This alternate range represents full compensation for all hours worked up to 41 hours in a 7 consecutive day work period.

- Effective October 1, 1998 through June 30, 2004, incumbents were subject to 168 hours in a 28 consecutive day work period.

- Effective July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2015, incumbents were subject to 164 hours in a 28 consecutive day work period.
- 1) Upon movement to Range K from Range C, employees shall receive a one-step (5%) increase and shall retain their MSA anniversary date.
- 2) Upon movement to Range K from Range J, employees shall receive the minimum salary rate and shall receive a new MSA anniversary date.

Thereafter, every twelve (12) qualifying pay periods, employees shall receive MSAs in accordance with the BU 6 MOU until the maximum of the range is reached.

When employees are no longer eligible for payment under the provisions of Range K, they shall be placed in Range C with one-step (5%) decreased from their Range K salary rate and shall retain their MSA anniversary date.

Salary Ranges 1, A, B, and C may be used individually to make salary comparisons for discretionary actions between classes. Salary Range C shall be used to make salary comparisons for mandatory actions if the move is “to” the class of Correctional Officer (CO) or Youth Correctional Officer (YCO). Salary Ranges J and K shall NOT be used to make salary comparisons between classes, except as provided for in Section 15.17.

Upon movement in the same class to the same alternate range:

The employee shall move to the same alternate range and retain his/her salary rate and salary adjustment anniversary date.

Example: YCO, Range J to YCO, Range J.

Upon movement to another R06 class with exactly the same salary alternate range:

The employee shall move to the same salary alternate range and retain his/her salary rate and salary adjustment anniversary date.

Examples: CO, Range K to YCO, Range K; CO, Range B to YCO, Range B.

Upon movement to another class with a different salary range:

To determine the new (“to”) appointment salary rate, Range J and Range K employees will move from the appropriate rate in Range B or Range C by reducing the based-on salary rate by one-step (5%). Apply the appropriate salary rule application to this reduced rate (other special pays and/or pay differentials, etc., may come into play).

The salary adjustment anniversary date is unaffected by this process. However, the anniversary date for Ranges B and J is subject to the R06 apprenticeship provisions and is not governed by CalHR anniversary rules. The new (“to”) anniversary date is established based on the provisions of the new (“to”) class, if applicable.

Effective March 1, 2002, upon promotion (+10% or more via list [A01] or permissive reinstatement [A02]) to an excluded class (M/S/C/E designation):

To determine the new ("to") appointment salary rate, use the current Range J or Range K salary rate and apply the appropriate salary rule application to this rate (other special pays and/or pay differentials, etc., may come into play).

Upon movement to Range K from Range C, employees shall receive a one-step (5%) increase and shall retain their MSA anniversary date.

Upon movement to Range K from Range J, employees shall receive the minimum salary rate and shall receive a new MSA anniversary date.

Thereafter, every twelve (12) qualifying pay periods after movement to Range K, employees shall receive MSAs in accordance with the BU 6 MOU until the maximum of the range is reached.

When employees are no longer eligible for payment under the provisions of Range K, they shall be placed in Range C with one-step (5%) decreased from their Range K salary rate and shall retain their MSA anniversary date.

Salary Ranges A, B, and C may be used individually to make salary comparisons for discretionary actions between classes. Salary Range C shall be used to make salary comparisons for mandatory actions if the move is "to" the class of Youth Correctional Counselor (YCC). Salary Ranges J and K shall NOT be used to make salary comparisons between classes.

Upon movement in the same class to the same alternate range:

The employee shall move to the same alternate range and retain his/her salary rate and salary adjustment anniversary date.

Example: YCC, Range J to YCC, Range J.

Upon movement to another R06 class with exactly the same salary alternate range:

The employee shall move to the same salary alternate range and retain his/her salary rate and salary adjustment anniversary date.

Only Example: YCC, Range A to YCO (Youth Correctional Officer), Range A.

Upon movement to another class with a different salary range:

To determine the new ("to") appointment salary rate, Range J and Range K employees will move from the appropriate rate in Range B or Range C by reducing the based-on salary rate by one-step (5%).
