Attached is your copy of the revised Compensation Plus handbook. This booklet provides a summary of primary benefits for managerial, supervisory, and confidential employees. It replaces all previous versions of the handbook. We appreciate your assistance in communicating this material to employees.

Please use this copy as a duplication master for use in your department. In an effort to reduce the use of paper, DPA will maintain a limited supply of "hard copies" of this booklet. However, the document is available on computer disk in WordPerfect and MS Word 6.0 formats. It is also available on the internet at DPA's website, <http://www.dpa.ca.gov>

For more information about this publication, please contact Marsha Sampson by above address. If you wish to order a copy of the document on disk, please send an email to the address listed above and please be sure to include your mailing address.
